The 'unforgettable' of the trip:

- The emirates of Kano, Kaduna, Jigawa and Bauchi, amid scintillating architecture
- At the court of Zaria and Dutse, in ceremonies of bygone days of an evocative 'African feudalism'
- The Durbar, impressive horse parade of the Fulani-Hausa nobles
- Dambe boxing and the Sharo initiation ceremony
- The encounter with the Gadawan Kura acrobats-singers, known as 'hyena men'
- The markets of Kano, amidst indigo fabrics and exotic hides

NIGERIA

Day 1: Saturday 15 May

Outward flight/Kano (KAN)

Overnight flight to Kano.

Day 2-3: from Sunday 16 to Monday 17 May

Kano (Durbar)

Arrival in Kano, where you will be met by staff from Kanaga Africa Tours, who will arrange your transfer to the Hotel Tahir or similar. These days are dedicated to exploring KANO, the largest, wealthiest and second-oldest Hausa emirate in Nigeria. Kano, a Sahelian metropolis with a population of 5 million founded in the 10th century, is a city that even today can transport the traveller back to the Middle Ages, when this place was one of the most important trading centres on the entire continent. We will visit the Gidan Dan Hausa Museum, a superb example of 20th-century Hausa architecture housing a fine collection of ancient artefacts; the Gidan Makama Palace, the former palace of the emir dating from 1440, now converted into a museum; the Gidan Rumfa Palace of the current Emir Aminu Ado Bayero, built in 1471; the Central Mosque (exterior); the gates of the old town along the ancient city walls (almost completely destroyed by the modern city); Dala Hill, from where you can admire a splendid panorama; the Kurmi Market with its section for tanning hides, particularly python and caiman skins; and the Dying Dye Pits at Kofar Mata, where the tradition of indigo dyeing is still practised. We shall also witness the lavish DURBAR horse parades, where courtiers show off their turbans and loose-fitting boubous, in vibrant colours and richly embroidered, whilst the horses display their finest finery to pay homage to the rulers and guests during the Muslim celebrations marking the end of Ramadan. Lunches in restaurants or hotels and overnight stays in double rooms with services.

Day 4: Tuesday 18 May

Kano/Zaria (Durbar)

After breakfast, transfer to ZARIA, one of Nigeria's oldest emirates, known locally as Zazzau, which forms part of the federal state of Kaduna and traditionally belonged to the Sokoto Caliphate. Founded around the year 1000, it was one of the epicentres of trans-Saharan trade, where caravans of dromedaries coming from the north exchanged salt for slaves, hides and cola nuts. We will visit the historic centre, which preserves a number of richly decorated mud-and-straw buildings, including one of the country's oldest mosques (whose vaults can still be admired inside the modern Central Mosque, built on the same site), several madrasas (Koranic schools), the market situated on the very spot where the caravans used to stop, and what remains of Queen Amina's 16-kilometre-long city walls. We will then head to the palace to meet Emir Alhaji Ahmed Nuhu Bamalli and learn about the current role of these monarchs in the Federal Republic of Nigeria. We will be captivated for a long time by the dazzling colours of the men's boubous and the women's hijabs, by the turbans tens of metres long, and by the red robes of the dogarin, the royal guards, in an almost dreamlike vision of an 'African Middle Ages'. In Zaria, too, we will be able to witness the DURBAR during the In Salah festival. Lunch at a restaurant and overnight stay at the Organo Hotel or similar, in double rooms with services.

Day 5: Wednesday 19 May

Zaria/Dutse (Durbar)

After breakfast, the sightseeing in Zaria comes to an end. Transfer to the small but charming EMIRATE OF DUTSE, capital of the federal state of Jigawa, which was part of Kano State until 1991. En route, through a stunning stretch of savannah, we shall admire the bizarre rock formations that gave the capital its name (Dutsi means 'rocks' in the local language), with a few traditional Hausa farming villages dotted here and there. Lunch at a restaurant or hotel. In the afternoon, we shall attend the colourful DURBAR. Accommodation at the Hotel Tahir Annexe or similar; overnight stay in a double room with services.

Day 6: Thursday 20 May

Dutse

After breakfast, in a traditional village, we will watch a performance by the Gadawan Kura acrobats and shamans – known as 'hyena men' – who are both admired and feared by the local population for their magical powers. They train hyenas, pythons and baboons, staging frenzied rituals in which mothers 'feed' their newborns to the hyenas, to protect them mystically and make them stronger. Return to Dutse and lunch at a private home or restaurant. In the afternoon, we will be escorted to the royal palace where we will have an official meeting with His Highness Hameem Nuhu Sanusi and members of the royal household. Afterwards, having admired the exquisite traditional architecture of the various rooms and buildings, we will take a stroll through the old quarter to meet the friendly locals. In the afternoon, we will watch dambe, a form of Hausa street boxing whose origins date back to the 10th century. Return to the hotel, dinner at a private home and overnight stay.

Day 7: Friday 21 May

Dutse/Kafin Madaki/Dutse

After breakfast, we set off for the federal state of BAUCHI, seat of the emirate of the same name, which was founded in 1809 by Yakubu Germa, a commander under Usman dan Fodio during his campaign of Islamisation in the early 19th century. Arrival in KAFIN MADAKI to admire its ancient palace, a magnificent example of traditional Hausa architecture. Here we will also take part in the grand Friday prayer, where the Madaki attends dressed in his most sumptuous robes. Lunch at a local home. In the afternoon, as we head north towards Jigawa, we'll stop at a village of the PEULH ETHNIC GROUP, where we'll witness the violent 'sharo' initiation ceremony, during which the boys are struck with wooden sticks to test their strength and endurance.

Day 8: Saturday 22 May

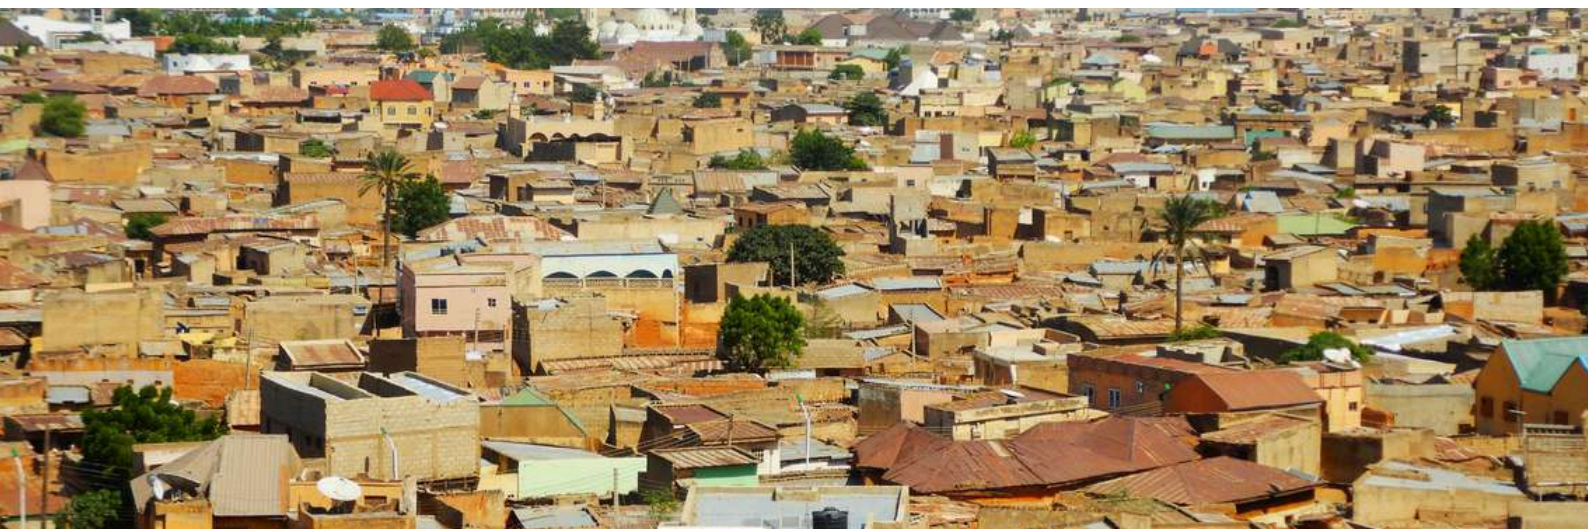

Dutse/Kano

Breakfast at the hotel, followed by transfer to Kano Airport in good time for your return flight. End of services.

Day 9: Sunday 23 May

Kano (KAN)/Return flight

Breakfast at the hotel and transfer to Kano airport in time for your return flight. End of services.

 NOTE: Durbar coincides with the end of Ramadan, which is linked to the sighting of the moon, so the date of the celebrations may vary by a day or so. If necessary, the itinerary and order of visits will be adjusted to allow for the best possible participation in the various horse parades in three different Emirates.*
